- 17 You shall have no contact with the victim, Eva Brasker, in person, by letter or other communication devices, audio or visual devices, or through a third party, unless authorized by the supervising officer. You shall not enter the premises or loiter within 1,000 feet of the victim's residence or place of employment.

CAUSE

Mr. Verduzco is considered in violation of his term of supervised release. On or about May 21, 2011, he received a new law violation for harassment domestic violence and he was in contact with a felon without prior approval from his supervising probation officer.

The defendant had contact with Eva Brasker, who is a convicted felon and also currently on supervised release with U.S. Probation. Ms. Brasker is currently participating in the Sobriety Treatment Education Program (STEP). Both individuals were notified prior to this incident that they did not have approval to have contact with each other.

According to the Richland Police Department incident report, Ms. Brasker initiated the contact on May 21, 2011, by going to Mr. Verduzco's residence to drop off some of his property. She then contacted the police department regarding Mr. Verduzco harassing her by telephone, and by coming to her residence and place of employment. She advised officers he appeared intoxicated when he came to her residence. Mr. Verduzco has acknowledged he had consumed a beer before going to Ms. Brasker's residence, but denied being intoxicated. He stated Ms. Brasker assaulted him by swinging at him and knocking off his glasses. He had a small cut under his left eye and his glasses were broken. Ms. Brasker was not charged with this incident. Mr. Verduzco also admitted that he went to her place of employment, but denied harassing her. He advised he wanted to speak to her about his broken glasses. Mr. Verduzco was arrested upon leaving Ms. Brasker's employment and a harassment charge was filed in Benton County District Court, case 1Z0198101. This matter has not been adjudicated, but the defendant has a temporary no contact order with Ms. Brasker.

Based on the circumstances involved in this offense and the violation behavior, this officer respectfully recommends the defendant's supervision conditions be modified. He currently does not have a no alcohol condition, but his alcohol use contributed to his unlawful behavior. Additionally, it should be a permanent supervision requirement that Mr. Verduzco not have any contact with Ms. Brasker despite the outcome of this harassment charge. This would be to the benefit of both individuals.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
